

Marianne Moore Series III: Book Manuscripts

This series contains what survives from the production of Moore's books (excluding her translations): some manuscripts, galley proofs, and errata sheets. It also contains fragmentary versions of her uncompleted autobiographical memoir, Coming about; and the typescript of her unpublished novel, The Way We Live Now.

Also available for study is a photocopy of the manuscript of A Marianne Moore Reader (1961), made from the original at the Brooklyn Public Library.
