

Marianne Moore Series X: Albums

These albums are in poor physical condition; the librarian may not allow examination of them, pending conservation.

Topics covered include: postcards sent to Moore from friends visiting Europe; Moore's trips to England in 1911 and `927; Bryn Mawr College; and "The File," the family newspaper created by Marianne Moore in 1914.

X:01

Scrapbook.

X:02

Scrapbook.

X:03

Scrapbook.

X:04

Post Card Album.

X:05

Post Card Album.

X:06

Post Card Album.

X:07:01

Post Card Album.

X:07:02

Photograph Album.

X:07:03

The File.

X:08

Post Card Album and Photograph Album.

X:09

Photograph Album.

Pages beginning with 5 (the first with photos) through 31 have been numbered in pencil in upper outer corner.

X:10

X:11:01 Scrapbook, 1966-1968.

Clippings, photos, invitations, correspondence and ephemera concerning various events, including Moore's eightieth birthday, awards, book reviews, poems, and miscellaneous matters. In a commercial black album titled "Book shelf scrapbook and album."

X:11:02 Scrapbook, 1968.

Clippings, photos, correspondence, invitations, and ephemera concerning various events, including Moore's throwing out the opening ball for the Yankees; numerous awards, book reviews, and miscellaneous matters.

In album as X:11:01

X:11:03 Scrapbook, 1968-1970.

Clippings, photos, correspondence, invitations, and ephemera concerning various events, including honors and awards; book reviews, and miscellaneous matters.