

LODGE'S PORTRAITS.

A New and Cheap Edition of this celebrated Collection is now in course of publication at one third of the original price.

In every department no pains or expense are spared to render this edition worthy the very high character which has hitherto distinguished the work; and in order to meet the convenience of different parties, two modes of publication are adopted, namely,

IN NUMBERS, MONTHLY, CONTAINING THREE PORTRAITS,

Price 2s. 6d. plain, and 4s. on India paper.

IN PARTS, MONTHLY, CONTAINING SIX PORTRAITS,

Price 5s. plain, and 8s. on India paper.

By this arrangement those who are desirous of completing the work in one half the time, will be able to do so by subscribing to the Parts.

* * * To prevent mistakes, it is necessary to state that the arrangement of the plates in the Numbers of this edition does not correspond with that of former editions.

EIGHTY NUMBERS, OR FORTY PARTS, COMPLETE THE WORK.

"There can be no doubt that this is the most elegant, as well as extensive collection of engraved Portraits produced either here or elsewhere, and that the biographical accompaniments are of merit unrivalled in any other work of the kind."—Quarterly Review.

"No publication of the present day exceeds, and few can vie with 'Lodge's Portraits.' It has attained the highest celebrity, and has been justly held up as the choicest specimen of the engraver's skill in the present age. The engravings are executed most exquisitely, and what renders the work of inestimable value, every portrait is taken from acknowledged likenesses—from original paintings. Immense sums have been expended on the plates; and we are glad to find that from arrangements recently entered into, the present publisher has been enabled to reduce the price of the numbers two-thirds, so that three numbers can now be purchased for what a few months since was paid for one. This will place this National Publication within the reach of the public at large; and those who are partial to fine engravings will now have an opportunity of gratifying their taste at a small cost, and at the same time they will be purchasing an illustrated history of their country in the most engaging form, contained in the biography of the most eminent characters."—Plymouth Herald.

THE IMPERIAL CLASSICS.

Just published, part V. price 1s., to be completed in sixteen Parts,

BISHOP BURNET'S HISTORY OF HIS OWN TIMES,

"When completed, this will form a very handsome book, and what some people have no great dislike to, a very cheap one. Indeed as to quantity of matter and excellence of workmanship, we do not know that we have seen any thing in the literary way so low-priced, even in these times of cheap books. The notes, where original, seem to us to be judicious, and, where borrowed from other authorities, are happily selected with reference to the text."—Scotsman.

Also, Part I. with a PORTRAIT, price 1s. to be completed in FOURTEEN PARTS,

THE WORKS OF WILLIAM PALEY, D.D.

ARCHDEACON OF CARLISLE.

This edition of Dr. Paley's works will be published in Monthly Parts, each containing sixty-four pages of letterpress, printed in the best manner, on superfine paper. The text will be carefully revised, and numerous explanatory notes will be added.

ADDRESS.

THE WASP is a general stinger;—but our Wasp is a young gentleman who will exercise that function with a vast deal of discretion, stinging only those Excesses in the Political and Fashionable World that from the obliquity of their conduct are deserving of a little wholesome chastisement. This will be administered very fearlessly, but in a very gentlemanly manner, so that, on all occasions, punishment and politeness shall go hand in hand.

Until the establishment of "The John Bull"—"The Age"—and "The Satirist," both men and things were not called by their right names. "The Bull" was the first to kick off the mask of imposture, behind which many Political and Titled Charlatans sheltered themselves; "The Age" did the same for the Fashionable World; and left it to "The Satirist" to produce a scourge compounded from the chastising rods of this bitter brace of predecessors. Something still remains to be done in the same line, there is just room left for a neat little stinger like "THE WASP" to fly in between them;—we mean him to come out on the mid-day of the week, and to be full of Novelty—Fun—Satire—and Whimstical Vivacity—for the low price of Two Pence! Our Politics are of the most liberal kind, without being too Democratic. We like good and cheap Government, have a proper respect for the Kingly Prerogative, and a great regard for the Liberties of the People: these opinions we shall support on all occasions with the most uncompromising ardour and fidelity.

Regarding that ambiguous phrase, "Criticism," whether in Literature—the Fine Arts—or the Drama, we beg to say, we are knowing fellows, and understand the whole machinery of it, and will expose this monstrosity of humbug whenever we have an opportunity. The Public—that innocent, unsuspecting lamb—shall not be kidnapped into the admiration of Trumpetry, from seeing it lauded in the imperishable columns of "THE WASP." Every buttering-up criticism we read in the pages of our contemporaries, we can tell at a glance the number of dinners that have been demolished to produce it. Authors in general are a poor set, and cannot well bribe the Newspaper Critics, but then their sleek-headed Publishers are invariably wealthy, and can do it for them—so the business is thus managed very comfortably for all Parties.

The Stage is in an equally hopeful way—Actors can now play Macbeth—Mungo—or Massaniello,—and be admired in print from one glass of brandy-and-water to a gallon, the eulogy proceeding progressively with the given quantity of liquor. All this beautifully dove-tailed imposture we shall endeavour to squash with our Literary Tomahawks. We give fair warning—we have ordered a score of scalping knives, and we are going to work in right earnest.

To be serious and to conclude:—Genius, Talent, and Public Virtue and Patriotism will always find an able advocate in "The Wasp." It is only with the Impostors of the Day that we wage an exterminating conflict, and to them we re-echo the celebrated Spanish Battle Cry of "War to the Knife."

"THE WASP" will appear (illustrated with two woodcuts, ably sketched by Rigdum Funnidos)—when Wasps generally do appear—in the genial and "merry month of May."—On Thursday, the 4th, the Public may look out for him, on the Counter of our Publisher, E. GRATTAN, 51, Paternoster Row, St. Paul's; and at every News-vender's throughout the Metropolis.

N.B. Booksellers, Newsmen, &c. may procure a Dozen or more of this Work, with liberal Allowance, on Sale or Return.

II.

THE MUSICAL LIBRARY, complete in Four Volumes of INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC, and Four Volumes of VOCAL MUSIC.

The "Musical Library" was commenced with a view to afford the same aid in the progress of the musical art that literature had so undeniably received from the cheap publications of the day. Before this work appeared, the exorbitant sums demanded for engraved music amounted to a prohibition of its free circulation among the middle classes. A "Musical Library" has now been formed, containing a collection of music of the most varied character, and by the best masters, ancient and modern, foreign and native. The older music has been adapted to the improved condition of our musical instruments; and the foreign vocal compositions, particularly the German, have in numerous instances been provided with English words or translations of the originals. A large sale has enabled the Publishers to effect this at a very moderate price to the Public. The Four Volumes of each Series, Vocal and Instrumental, handsomely bound in cloth, with ornamental Title-pages, may be had separately, the first two of each Series, price Half-a-Guinea each volume; the last two of each Series, price Twelve Shillings each. The Volumes of Vocal and of INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC are also each half-bound in 2 vols. morocco, price 2l. 8s. each Series.

THE CHINESE. A General Description of the Empire of China and its Inhabitants. By JOHN FRANCIS DAVIS, Esq., F.R.S., late his Majesty's Chief Superintendant in China. In 2 vols. post 8vo., illustrated with wood-cuts, price One Guinea.

"In Mr. Davis's account of China we find every subject brought forward that can throw light on the laws and institutions of a people to whom, we think, that justice has not been rendered by foreigners which is their due. Mr. Davis brings to his task advantages which have fallen to the lot of few Europeans. He resided twenty years at Canton, where he at length rose to be chief of the factory; he accompanied Lord Amherst's embassy to Peking; and he ranks as one of the few Europeans who have ever really mastered the language and literature of China. He has rendered into English several pieces from their romances, their poetry, and their dramatic works; of which last class, in all tongues, but more especially in the unique tongue of China, it is particularly difficult to preserve the spirit in a translation. We have a right, therefore, to consider the statements which he has now submitted to the public, as containing as full and correct a view of this singular people, of their government, laws, and institutions—and, in short, of the whole frame of their society, as the many difficulties with which the subject is beset will admit."—Quarterly Review, July 1836.

FRENCH WOOL MATTRESSES.

The very frequent inquiries for Mattresses made after the manner of the French, have induced F. HEAL & SON to turn their attention to the making of Mattresses on the same principle. The essential difference between French Mattresses and English consists in the materials of which they are made, and consequently a difference in the making. The French use long Fleece Wool, and therefore but little work is requisite, leaving to the wool the whole of its elasticity. English Mattresses are made of short Wool, the refuse of other manufacturings, and a great deal of work is consequently necessary to keep the material together, which makes them comparatively Non Elastic. The advantages F. HEAL & SON possess by being exclusively manufacturers of Bedding, enables them to offer Mattresses of Fine Long Wool, equal to the best that are made in France, at the same prices that are usually charged for those generally made in this country.

GEARY'S NEW-INVENTED STAY.

MRS. NICHOLAS GEARY, COURT STAY-MAKER, 61, St. JAMES-STREET, has the honour to lay before the Nobility and Gentry the following high Testimonials in favour of her Newly-invented Stays:—

"It appears to me that Mrs. Geary's Stays are likely to be much superior to those in ordinary use."—B. C. Brodie, February 18, 1837.

"I have examined the Stays invented by Mrs. Geary, and think them admirably adapted to give salutary support to the body without that injurious pressure which renders ordinary Stays so extremely prejudicial."—J. T. Conquest, M.D.

"In Mrs. Geary's Corset for Growing Girls the pressure on every part of the Chest is slight; and by exerting no pressure on the edges of the hip, it does not (by forcing these edges to grow inward) diminish during youth, the cavity of the pelvis, or hazard the suffering which must attend that malformation in mothers."—Extracted from Mr. Coulson's Work on 'Deformities of the Chest and Spine,' 2nd Edition.

"I am so satisfied of the superiority of Mrs. Geary's Stays and Belt for pregnant Ladies, that I shall make a point of recommending them whenever I may have an opportunity."—James Eyre, M.D., 15, Lower Brook-street, March 22, 1827.

"It is in the complete Corset that the genius of Mrs. Geary has had full swing. The problem to be solved was, to support the figure yet not to diminish freedom of motion, and to conceal the size of the abdomen when too large."—Extracted from Dr. James Johnson's 'Medico-Chirurgical Review' for Jan., 1837.

"I have examined Mrs. Geary's improved Stays, and I have no hesitation in saying I think them infinitely superior for the purpose of support to any now in use. I consider the Belt also, invented by the same lady for pregnant females, devised upon an exceedingly good principle."—Francis H. Ramsbotham, M.D., 14, New Broad-street, March 21, 1837.

"Mrs. Geary's Stays of all kinds present a new and rational principle in the construction of these most important portions of dress. The formation of the bosom, and of all the parts adapted to prominences, is a matter of great ingenuity and of extraordinary beauty."—Extracted from 'Female Beauty,' by Mrs. A. Walker.

"The Exercise Corset, invented by Mrs. Geary, is absolutely necessary in all exercises of the arms, and especially in the Indian exercises, for which they were constructed."—Extracted from 'Exercises of Ladies,' by Donald Walker, 2nd Edition.

The following medical gentlemen are of opinion that Mrs. N. Geary's Stays, in consequence of the great improvements they present—their capability of adaptation to every variety of form—their removal of all unequal pressure by the rejection of gores or gussets—and the proper employment of elastic materials—are deserving of the strongest recommendation.

HORTICULTURAL IMPROVEMENT.

The new patent HYDRAULIC MACHINE, invented by J. Read, is a pump in miniature; by a peculiar arrangement of the valves within the cylinder or valve chest, surrounded by a strong tube parallel to the working barrel, to secure it from bruises and other accidents, and to act as an air vessel; it keeps up a constant stream, similar to a double action pump, throwing the water either in a powerful current, a gentle shower, or dewfall. These machines are calculated for watering flowers, clumps, patches, conservatories, and forcing houses of every description, and may be worked by the single hand for hours without the least fatigue.

Manufactured only by the patentee, 35, Regent Circus, Piccadilly. None are genuine except stamped with the words "Read's Patent."

Worthy the notice of Families in the Country, Commercial Gentlemen, and the Public generally, especially those who wish to combine comfort with Economy.

THE VINE INN, COMMERCIAL HOUSE, AND FAMILY HOTEL,

Bishopsgate-Street Within.

MARY COLLINS, having recently taken the above very extensive and commodious TAVERN, begs to acquaint those friends who may honour her with their patronage, that they will find every Department of the Establishment conducted with the strictest regard to Economy and Regularity.

Families, or Gentlemen from the Country, whose business calls them to Town occasionally for short periods, will find themselves attended with every domestic comfort.

In the Selection of her WINES and SPIRITS, it has been the endeavour of M. C. to secure those of the very best quality, and she confidently anticipates that a single trial will prove that she has been successful.

 Very Superior Beds, at moderate charges, are kept constantly Aired. Excellent Stabling, &c. London, March 18th, 1837.

"TO ALL OUR READERS who desire ease or comfort in walking, we most strongly recommend a trial of Messrs. HALL and CO.'S PANNUS-CORIUM, or LEATHER-CLOTH SHOES. Speaking from experience, we can say they are much softer than any leather we have ever worn, and especially adapted to the present season."—Belle Assemblée.

"To those who value the healthfulness of dry feet and the comfort of genial warmth, Hall and Co.'s India Rubber Goloshes are indispensable."—L. Gazette.

The Cloth Shoe and the India Rubber Golosh, either worn together or separate, exceed in comfort, elegance, and durability every other shoe or clog hitherto invented.

The Public are requested to inspect them at the Patentees', Wellington-street, Waterloo-bridge; and Ladies or Gentlemen in the country may be fitted by forwarding a boot or shoe.

DR. JOHN ARMSTRONG'S LIVER PILLS.

"I care not how I am physicked, so it be not by the adventure of a quack, but advise of a physician, who, I am sure, will prescribe no more for me than may consist with my safety, and need doth require."—Old Divine.

Dr. John Armstrong, who gave the proprietor this invaluable prescription, was the author of the splendid works on Typhus and Scarlet Fever; and on the Principles and Practice of Physic, published by Rix.

These pills are scientifically prepared for the proprietor, a gentleman of private fortune, by his Wholesale Agent, Mr. John T. Eddy, Chemist, Bishop Stortford, whose name and address (to pre-vent imposition) are engraved in white letters on the Government stamp. Each box is also sealed with a tower, on a shield of ermine and gold, the Proprietor's arms. None else genuine.

From the very extraordinary relief afforded by these Pills to DYSPEPTIC and BILIOUS PERSONS, the sale is becoming truly immense. All the Wholesale Houses supply them to the Trade; and every respectable patent medicine vender, and many of the chemists, in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, and in the country (there being nearly 800 advertised agents), retail them to the public, in boxes at 1s. 1/4d. and 2s. 9d. each.

Hundreds of striking cases and flattering testimonials might be noticed; but each DYSPEPTIC or BILIOUS SUFFERER who tries these Pills (most costly in their preparation to the proprietor), will furnish a most satisfactory and convincing case of cure or relief to himself. For some of the cases and testimonials vide The Sun, Watchman, Mark Lane Express, and the Envelope of the Boxes.

MAGIC DROPS.—An instantaneous cure for the toothache, price 1s. 1/4d. a bottle. Sold wholesale by Barclay and Sons, 95, Farringdon Street, and the proprietor W. W. Skrimshire, chemist, &c. 2, Marsham Street, Westminster. DEAFNESS.

MR. S. MAW, ACOUSTIC INSTRUMENT MAKER to the Royal Dispensary for Diseases of the Ear, begs to invite the attention of those afflicted with deafness to a NEW ACOUSTIC INSTRUMENT lately invented by Mr. Curtis, Aurist to His Majesty, called the KERAPHONITE. It is fixed on the head for the purpose of collecting sound, which it does better than any contrivance hitherto employed. MANUFACTURED by S. MAW, Surgeon's Instrument Maker, 11, Aldersgate Street, near the New Post Office, of whom may be had a variety of Acoustic Instruments for assisting hearing; also Mr. Curtis's newly invented Spectacles for Strabismus, and his convex wire-gauze Eye-preservers, which will be found preferable to glass, and very useful and agreeable for wearing in the wind, dust, sun, &c.

DOVETON;

Or, THE MAN OF MANY IMPULSES.
By the AUTHOR of JERNINGHAM,
SMITH, ELDER, and Co., Cornhill.

C. CAMPANARI

BEGS to call the attention of the public to his EXHIBITION of fac-simile representations of ETRUSCAN SEPULCHRAL CHAMBERS, with the identical Sarcophagi, Vases, Armour, Gold Ornaments, Bones, and other remains, found by himself and family in the excavations in which they have been for many years engaged on the site of the ancient Tarquinia, Tuscan, Volcia, and Polmarzo. To the Tombs first opened to public inspection he has added several others, it being his intention by a series of Sepulchral Chambers to shew the various modes of burial practised in Etruria; and to enable the spectator to trace the gradual rise of the arts, from the remote ages of the early Etruscans, up to the time when they were brought to perfection by the Greeks.

121, Pall Mall.

WEAK LEGS, KNEES, AND ANKLES.—SCHOOLBRED and RENWICK, of 34, Jermyn-street, St. James's, beg to announce their NEW INVENTED PATENT ELASTIC STOCKINGS, KNEE CAPS, SOCKS, &c. The particular property of this Stocking is to give constant support to the leg, in varicose or enlarged veins, weak, swollen or dropsical affections. The Knee Cap will be of great use when the knee-joint requires support, from accident to the pan of the knee, after inflammation, rheumatic or gouty affections. The stock is to give support to the ankle-joint after fractures and dislocations, or in any case where, from weakness of the part, support may be necessary. Suffice it to say, wherever common bandages are requisite, the above articles will beneficially supersede their application, inasmuch as they yield an equally diffused pressure over the part affected.

FRENCH SULTANA PAPER.

FRENCH SULTANA PAPER, stamped with Coronets, Initials, &c., without any extra charge.—This elegant paper, invented by Lavenne and Co., is so indelibly and indestructably perfumed with the rarest odours that the action of the air cannot destroy the various perfumes with which it is impregnated. Coronets, initials, &c., in either gold, silver, or mosaic, are universally admired and in general request by the nobility and gentry both in London and Paris. Newly-invented Medallion Wafers, Envelopes stamped with initials from 6d. per dozen. The above are patronised by His Majesty the King of the French, and may be had of LAVENNE and Co., purveyors of perfumed paper, envelopes, &c., to the Royal Family of England, at their establishment (where a general assortment is always ready for inspection), 13, Great Castle-street, Regent-street, French perfumed packages for linen, &c.

MINERAL MAGNETS.

DR. SCHMIDT of Berlin, having discovered a method of constructing Magnets of any power of attraction, has succeeded in establishing their use as a certain and powerful remedy, when applied according to his own practice, in the following Nervous and Functional Disorders:—Deafness, either Rheumatic or Nervous, Tic Doloroux, Weakness of the Eye, from over exertion or age, in Incipient Cataract, in general or partial Weakness of the Body, Pains arising from old wounds, headach, nervous or rheumatic, in Toothach or Faceach, in Hystery, Palsy, Gout, Tremors, Dizziness, &c.

Magnets, with directions for their medical use, may be obtained from Dr. Schmidt, who can be consulted at his residence, 21, Half Moon Street, Piccadilly, from ten till four o'clock daily. Many well authenticated cases have occurred since Dr. Schmidt's practice in London, which can be referred to if required.

MORISON'S PILLS.

THIS MEDICINE cannot be held genuine unless the words "MORISON'S UNIVERSAL MEDICINES" are engraved on the Government Stamp, affixed to each box, in white letters upon a red ground; it is the only security to the public of its genuineness, and therefore highly important that it should be particularly observed by all who take the medicine, as many spurious imitations are now in circulation.

No Chemist or Druggist is allowed to sell "MORISON'S PILLS," and the public is hereby cautioned against purchasing the medicine of them.

THE SPLENDID NEW PIN, with an immovable solid head, patronised by her Majesty and all the Royal Princesses. The Head not put on, as is the case with other pins, but the whole Pin is formed of one piece of wire, and continues to be exclusively manufactured by D. J. TAYLOR & CO., the sole Patentees. These Pins are universally admired for their brilliant silver-like appearance, the impossibility of the heads coming off, the elasticity of the wire, and their incomparable points. Also their handsome Patent Jet Black and Purple MOURNING-PINS, which possess unequalled colour and smoothness, prepared by a process known only to D. J. TAYLOR & CO. Their perfected brilliant drill-eyed and other Needles, which will not cut the thread, are confidently recommended, and have taken a pre-eminent stand in the market. Sold retail by all the respectable Haberdashers in England, Scotland, Ireland, and France, at the price of Pins and Needles in ordinary use. Merchants and dealers supplied from D. J. TAYLOR & CO.'s Factory, Light Pool Mills, near Stroud, Gloucestershire; and at their Warehouses, 9 and 10, King Street, Cheapside, London.

TO BON VIVANTS.

THE LATE DR. VANCE'S Celebrated Digestive, Bilious, and Liver Pills will prove an invaluable remedy to those who indulge in luxuries of the table; they give speedy relief in sick headach, and every disorder of the digestive functions, and are decidedly the best aperient medicine extant. Superior in every respect, after an excess of wine, to Seidlitz Powders, Blue Pill, or any other remedy commonly applied. In Boxes 1s. 1½d. and 2s. 9d. each. Which, to prevent fraud, as there are numerous imitations, will be sealed with the address, and signed with the Name of the proprietor, T. R. Mounsey, 21, Nelson Street, Greenwich. Sold also by E. King William Street, London Bridge; Sanger, Oxford Street; Bridge, Regent Circus; Walthen, 29, Poultry, and through them by all respectable medicine vendors.

TO OFFICERS of the ARMY and NAVY.—R. N. HAYES begs respectfully to inform the Officers of the Army and Navy, of his having entered into an arrangement with Mr. R. W. Winfield, the Patentee and Manufacturer of the BRASS and IRON BEDSTEADS, so much approved for their superior construction and elegant appearance, being equally applicable to domestic purposes, and a sure preventive to vermin. R. N. H. assures those gentlemen who may favour him with their commands that there will be a saving to them of at least 40 per cent., in consequence of an arrangement he has made with the manufacturer to have only one profit on the article. R. N. H. has also to recommend his new Portable Recumbent Chair, with an assortment of Camp and Cabin Furniture, all manufactured on the premises, and equally low in price. R. N. H. flatters himself he need not appeal to gentlemen already in the army, as the quality of his articles is well known; but to those about to join it is necessary to state the advantage derived in purchasing their outfit of a manufacturer.—Show-rooms, 26, New Bond-street.

"A CHINESE TEA PARTY," as given by a Hong Merchant, is thus described by Mr. Davis, in his Work on China:—"We adjourned to the next room to take our tea, the indispensable commencement and close of all visits and ceremonies among the Chinese. According to custom they presented it in porcelain cups, each of which was covered with a saucer-like top, which confines and prevents the aroma from evaporating. The infusion," Mr. Davis adds, "exhaled a delicious fragrant odour, of which the best Teas carried to Europe can scarcely give an idea." It is afterwards said that the only Tea brought to England which preserves, in all its freshness, this delicious fragrant odour, is that known as "Howqua's Mixture," which, being imported in leaded packages, hermetically sealed, its fine flavour is thus preserved complete. The mode of picking it is given by an eye-witness, Kauffman, the celebrated traveller, in his Work on China and Japan. He says—"Before collecting the tea they (the gatherers) abstain from every kind of gross food for some weeks, that their breath and perspiration may not in the least injure the leaves, which they do not touch but with very fine gloves." When these semi-barbarians, as some term the Chinese, evince such a refined delicacy even in the gathering their fine teas, it becomes a question how much longer the fair patronesses of the leaf in our own more civilised country will submit to be supplied with tea from canisters, every leaf of which has probably passed a dozen times through the grocer's lad's hands in serving his principal's two-ounce customers. For either the 360 millions of Chinese (population China census, 1812), with whom tea is a universal beverage, bestow unnecessary care on the leaf, or such care in picking it abroad deserves an equal caution against the undue fingering it at home. Howqua's Teas, in Chinese catty packages, are untouched since first packed by the careful natives. They consist of one kind of black (the genuine) and only Howqua's Mixture (of 40 rare black teas) and one of green (Howqua's small leaf Gunpowder, grown only on one estate); both are sold in the original Chinese catty packages, containing one pound and one-third nett of tea, the black at 6s. per lb., being 8s. the catty; the green at 8s. 7½d. per lb., being 11s. 6d. the catty. It is particularly to be observed that there is but ONE importer of them in the Kingdom (a Commander in the H. E. I. Company's Service), who has intrusted the sale to only TWO agents in London—viz. C. Verrey, the Swiss confectionier, 218, Regent-street; and T. Littlejohn and Son, 77, King William-street, City. The increased demand for these celebrated Teas having compelled the agents to employ vans in delivering them, they will now execute each order to all parts of London.

The VOICE CONDUCTOR, which is a small apparatus to be attached to the ears of deaf persons, and which, at once, restores the capability of hearing—patronised by the Nobility. Also, the CLYSMA FOUNTAIN, for superseding the habitual custom of taking opening medicines, by relieving the bowels in a more safe, certain, and agreeable manner. This is an improvement upon Lavement Machines, which is patronised by the Faculty for its peculiar property of excluding air, and for being commodious to the timid and infirm.

THE CORN TRADE.—In the neighbourhood of Mark Lane, Corns of various kinds fluctuate from day to day, and naturally create equal excitement amongst both buyers and sellers. But there are corns of another description which create a still greater and more painful excitement amongst both large and small holders, but which are not so easily disposed of as even damaged wheat at Mark Lane. To those holders who are labouring under the annoyances we allude to, we would recommend "Allingham's Rotterdam Corn and Bunion Solvent," as a sure remedy for all their ills in the affair of corns.

The genuine is signed by J. A. SHARWOOD on the outside wrapper, and sold by most medicine vendors, and at 55, Bishopsgate Street Without.

CAUTION.

NO sooner does an article of real utility attract attention, and secure extensive patronage, than adventurers start up with base imitations to rob the inventor of the just recompence of his labour. Robert Wiss's CELEBRATED Water Closets, on the principle of pumping the water from under the seat into the basin, have met with the fate of all good inventions. From those who wish to purchase of the inventor, and obtain a good and serviceable article, that the Original MANUFACTORY FOR PATENT PORTABLE and FIXED WATER CLOSETS, is No. 38, CHARING CROSS, near the Admiralty.—Experienced Workmen sent to all parts to fix the above at half the expense of those on the old principle.

TOOTH-ACHE.

MR. LOCK continues to CURE the TOOTH-ACHE by fumigation or steam from foreign herbs, which has the effect of destroying the nerve without causing any pain to the patient. The cure is effected in three seconds, the tooth remains firm in the socket, and will not decay any further. The patient will, after this operation, be able to draw into the mouth the external air, strike the teeth together, or hold cold water in the mouth, without any pain. The advertiser has a tooth cured 15 years, therefore he can warrant the cure this length of time.—362, Oxford-street, three doors below the Pantheon. Letters post paid. Reference given if required. Charges moderate, according to the circumstances of the patients. This method is not injurious to the health or teeth.

ADDRESS TO THE PUBLIC.

DR. BRANDRETH wishes mankind to consider that health solely depends on the state of purity in which the blood is kept, every part of the body being supplied daily with new blood from the food consumed, consequently, according to the pureness of that blood, so must the state of the body be more or less healthy. To obtain, therefore, the most direct purifier, is a question of no little importance to every individual. It matters not what Mr. Morison or Dr. Brandreth say about their Pills of Vegetable, but what medicine is really the best.

That BRANDRETH'S PILLS are the most direct purifiers, there will be no doubt, when it is considered that they have gained their present very extensive sale—not by Advertisement—but by their own intrinsic merits; and their universality is established by the fact, that their operation is more or less powerful, according to the pureness of the circulating fluid—for, if taken by a person who is in a fair state of health, they are scarcely felt—but, if taken by one suffering from disease, their operation will be powerful, and perhaps painful, until the disease is conquered, or the system entirely under their influence—this accomplished, small doses, say two, or three, or four Pills, three or four times a week, will soon effect a cure, even in the most inveterate cases.

TESTIMONIALS.

"Brandreth's Pills, which have attained a celebrity in the 'Annals of Physic,' unequalled in ancient or modern times, have performed such astonishing cures, that numbers of the faculty have publicly recorded their opinions of their wonderful health-restoring qualities."—Satirist.

"We feel both pleasure and satisfaction in recommending to all our readers Brandreth's Vegetable Pills, as the most certain, most safe, and invaluable Medicine extant."—Times.

"We have just heard of a most surprising cure effected by Brandreth's Pills; the party to whom we allude was on the very verge of the grave, when fortunately she was induced to try the effect of Dr. Brandreth's Universal Medicine, and the result was her speedy restoration to perfect health."—Bell's Old Weekly Messenger.

"All who value their health will do well to make trial of Brandreth's Vegetable Pills."—Weekly Police Gazette.

"As an antibilious and aperient Pill, we believe them to be as far before all others, as the travelling upon the Manchester railroad is to the two-mile-per-hour jog-trot of one of Pickford's stage waggons."—Weekly Dispatch.

"The most popular and highly-appreciated medicine in the naval and military circles, is an invention of Dr. Brandreth's, known as Brandreth's Pills."—Standard.

"The use of Brandreth's Pills will prove of great value in the preservation of that invaluable blessing—health."—Globe.

An immense number of cures and testimonials may be seen at any of the Agents. In consequence of the most unparalleled success, and the wonderfully increasing sale, of BRANDRETH'S VEGETABLE PILLS, His Majesty's Honourable Commissioners of Stamps have allowed the Proprietor (by express Permission) to have his name on the Government Label; and the Public will observe, that none are genuine unless "GEO. HODGKINSON, 38, Aldersgate Street," is engraved on the Stamp—to counterfeit which is felony.

To be had of all Medicine Vendors, in Boxes at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s.

THE SEVERITY OF THE WEATHER

for some months past, has in feeble and scorbutic habits been the exciting cause of Rheum, Catarrhs, and that prevailing and often fatal epidemic, the Influenza. Humours checked and vitiated by cold are sure to induce some of these disorders, for the cure of which no medicine has a higher claim on the public attention than the Vegetable Syrup of De Velnos; which for more than half a century has maintained its pre-eminence in checking and removing those evils by correcting and purifying the human fluids. Those who are afflicted with cutaneous eruptions, diseased liver, or any complaint arising from an impure state of the blood, will find relief from a proper course of this Medicine, which being wholly vegetable, enters into and nourishes the constitution, subjects to no inconvenience, and never disturbs the animal functions, while it removes their obstructions and restores their health.

Prepared by Mrs. Canham, 52, Berners Street, Oxford Street, and sold by her and by all respectable Medicine Venders in town and country.

Signor Marras will be happy to receive engagements for private Soirées, where he will execute the most choice music, as well as those pieces which are most preferred. The desire to be useful to the beau monde is the only reason that has induced Signor Marras to form this new company, and in the end to obviate the necessity which at present exists when the singers of the first order are engaged at the Theatre. The Nobility and Gentry who will honour Signor Marras with their commands, are requested to apply to Signor Marras, No. 27, Jermyn Street, St. James's, where they may rely on their orders being punctually attended to on reasonable terms.

MAY IDAY!
FLORAL GEMS AND GEMS OF THE TOILET.

Smiling May, arrayed in her sparkling robe of Floral Gems, has ever furnished a theme for the softest lay of the Poet, and fancy's vivid sketch, in elegant similitudes of Beauty to the hues of blooming flowers: the Delicacy of Complexion thus celebrated is eminently promoted and sustained by the use of

GOWLAND'S LOTION,

A preparation so practically congenial as to have acquired the title of "The Gem of the Toilet." Cutaneous impurities, of whatever nature, and Discolourations incident to the Season, subside upon its application, and the Skin displays the Transparent quality, softness, and elasticity so highly conducive to Personal Appearance.
The Name and Address of the Proprietor, Robert Shaw, 33, Queen Street, Cheapside, are engraved on the Government Stamp affixed to each package of the genuine Gowland's Lotion, and enclosed in the useful and popular work entitled "The Theory of Beauty." Prices, 2s. 9d., 5s. 6d., and 8s. 6d. Sold by the Proprietor as above, and by all respectable Perfumers and Medicine Venders.

FOR THE HAIR.
SHAW'S MINDORA OIL.

This superlative Article has attained its present reputation and Patronage by the union of extreme purity and delicate fragrance, with the standard requisites of an undoubted restorative and promoter of abundant growth of the Hair; it is also perfectly free from Chemical admixture, or Colouring substances, and will, on trial, be found meriting the attention and preference of all who value enduring perfection of the most graceful Ornament bestowed by Nature.

Prepared for the Toilet by Robert Shaw, 33, Queen Street, Cheapside, (whose signature appears on the label and wrapper of each package) in bottles, enclosed in an instructive "Treatise on the Hair," at 3s., 5s. 6d.; and in stoppered Toilet Bottles, containing four of the smaller size, at 10s. 6d. Sold by the Proprietor as above, and by Sanger, Oxford Street; Prout, Strand; and Rigge, Cheapside.

MOST IMPORTANT INFORMATION.
BY HIS MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT.

33, GERRARD STREET SOHO.

G. MINTER begs to inform the Nobility, Gentry, &c., that he has invented an EASY CHAIR, that will recline and elevate, of itself, into an innumerable variety of positions, without the least trouble or difficulty to the occupier; and there being no machinery, rack, catch, or spring, it is only for persons sitting in the chair merely to wish to recline or elevate themselves, and the seat and back take any desired inclination, without requiring the least assistance or exertion whatever, owing to the weight on the seat acting as a counterbalance to the pressure against the back by the application of a self-adjusting leverage; and for which G. M. has obtained his Majesty's Letters Patent. G. M. particularly recommends this invention to Invalids, or to those who may have lost the use of their hands or legs, as they are by it enabled to vary their position without requiring the use of either to obtain that change of position, from its endless variety, so necessary for the relief and comfort of the afflicted.

The Chair is made by the Inventor only, at his Wholesale Cabinet and Upholstery Manufactory, 33, Gerrard-street, Soho. G. M. is confident an inspection only is required to be convinced of its superiority over all others.

Merlin, Bath, Brighton, and every other description of Garden Wheel Chairs, much improved by G. Minter, with his self-acting reclining backs, so as to enable an invalid to lie at full length. Spinal Carriages, Portable Carriage Chairs, Water Beds, and every article for the comfort of the invalid.

WITHOUT INJURING THE HAIR OR SOILING THE SKIN.

THE only Article that has stood the test of experience is AGID HASSAN'S CIRCASSIAN HAIR DYE, which will in a few hours change light, red, or grey Hair to a rich auburn or jet black, or any shade between, with a fine glossy appearance, without injuring the roots. It will also be found invaluable to Cavalry Officers and Gentlemen of the Turf in removing "white Stockings." Sold by the Sole Agents, W. DAY and CO., at their Italian Warehouse, 95, Gracechurch Street; Hannay and Co., 63, Oxford Street; in bottles, at 5s., 10s., and 15s. each, having directions for use, with a fac-simile of the signature of Agid Hassan; also that of W. Day and Co. All others are counterfeit.

ATMOSPHERIC INFLUENCE UPON THE SKIN.

The well known prevalence of cutaneous affections during the Spring, exemplifies the necessity of preserving the Skin in a state of purity fitted to perform its functions. Obstruction having once taken place, the fluids vainly seek evaporation by the pores, and, receding, leave behind and under its surface those heavy and acid particles, which do not fail to manifest their virulence in forms more or less distressing and unsightly;—the face, as most delicate in texture, suffering in the greatest degree.

The above simple illustration may be sufficient to invite the attention of Ladies to the means both of prevention and cure afforded by from the vicissitudes of our variable clime, as well as the injurious degree of heat felt in crowded assemblies, or exposure to harsh winds, and the effects of midnight dew.

ROWLAND'S KALYDOR,

The only efficient Protector of the Skin,

This delightful preparation is extracted from Exotics of the mildest and most balsamic nature, is warranted perfectly innocent, and free from mineral admixture—operating as a powerful cleanser of the skin, it speedily eradicates Freckles, Tan, Pimples, Spots, Redness, and every other Cutaneous Defect, while its most remarkable property is the removal of every trace of sallowness from the complexion, which it restores to a freshness of tint, exciting both surprise and the most pleasurable sensations.

Persistence in the use of the Kalydor preserves, unimpaired, those important functions of the Skin on which depend its purity, softness not inaptly compared to velvet, and elasticity; the neck, hands, and arms assuming and retaining the radiant whiteness so much admired, and so unequivocal a mark of attention to the niceties of the TOILET, and the graces of personal attraction.

To GENTLEMEN, whose faces are tender after shaving, ROWLAND'S KALYDOR will be found excellent beyond precedent in ameliorating and allaying the irritation and smarting pain, and rendering the skin soft and smooth.

This exotic preparation is perfectly innocuous, acting in all cases by promoting a healthy tone of the minute vessels, and is

THE MOST ELEGANT AS WELL AS EFFECTIVE TOILET APPENDAGE
HITHERTO SUBMITTED TO UNIVERSAL PATRONAGE.

Sold in half-pint Bottles, at 4s. 6d. each, and in Pints, at 8s. 6d. each, Duty included.

The NAME AND ADDRESS OF THE PROPRIETORS, as at foot, are engraved on the Government Stamp, and pasted on the Cork of each Genuine Bottle.
